

A CERTIFICATE OF PRIDE

The Watpo Thai Traditional Medical School

The history of massage can be dated back to Buddha's period. When Buddha had received massage from PRA KASAPA under Kakating tree, between their journey from WESALI to SAWATI in INDIA. This Buddha-received-massage image statue has been in PRA VIHARA KHOT PHRA BUDDHA CHAO KHAO NIBBANA at the southeast corner of Wat Po.

Wat Po is popularly known as the temple of the Reclining Buddha, as well as being Thailand's the first open university under the King patronage. Many fields of knowledge and technology for those days were gathered here such as history, religion, literature, arts, culture, medical including with massage lines and points on human body, 80 statues of Hermit self-massaging and stretching positions, and some of 1,100 formulas of recognized herbal medicines.

All those who ever want to acquire good knowledge and self health care can come in at his ease. Wat Po Thai Traditional Medical School continues to teach Thai Traditional Massage from the fundamental of the stone inscription, massage texts and Yoga models, which have been collected and inscribed by King Rama III.

Wat Po Thai Traditional Medical School hereby presents this Certificate for your attending to
